

SPECIAL BULLETIN

O F F I C E O F T R A I N I N G

No. 32-63

22 August 1963

TO: Agency Training Officers

REGISTRATION FOR GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY OFF-CAMPUS COURSES

The College of General Studies of George Washington University will offer nine courses in the Off-Campus Program during the first semester of the 1963-64 academic year.

Ec I	Principles of Economics	Thursdays
Eng 1	English Composition (Pretest required. May be taken any time in Office of Registrar/TR	Tuesdays
Geog 51	Introduction to Geography	Mondays
Hist 145	History of Russia	Thursdays
Math 111	Mathematics for Engineers and Physicists I (Prerequisite: Calculus)	Tuesdays
Pol Sci 9	Government of the U. S.	Wednesdays
Pol Sci 171	International Politics	Tuesdays
Pol Sci 212	Seminar: Comparative Government and Politics	Mondays
Psy 1	General Psychology	Wednesdays

(more information on other side)

CIA INTERNAL USE ONLY

- REGISTRATION: 12-13 September
1000 to 1700 hours
Room 1A-13
- TUITION : $72.00 ($24.00 per credit hour; may be paid in three installments)
- TIME : Classes will begin the week of 23 September and run 15 weeks. All classes will meet from 1745 to 2015 on the days indicated above.
- CLASSROOMS : All courses will be taught at Langley. Classrooms will be announced at registration.
- CREDIT : All courses carry three semester hours credit. Special arrangements for an extra hour of credit may be made at the time of registration.
- ENROLLMENT : Limited to overt Agency employees.
- INSTRUCTORS : Agency employees engaged to teach by the university.
- COUNSELING : Mr. Michael Jessup, Assistant Director of the GWU Off-Campus Division, will be available for counseling on Monday, 9 September, from 1000 to 1700 hours in the Office of the Registrar, GC-03. An appointment can be made by calling extension 5513. Counseling will also be available as time permits on registration days. Counselors are cleared university officials.

CIA INTERNAL USE ONLY